

Tuesday, December 5

Featured Speaker

Kevin Jones

Kevin Jones, MS and Licensed Restorative Practices Trainer of Trainers is the Student and Family Service Administrator at the Regional Alternative School in Bloomington, Illinois and a Professional Development SEL/Restorative Practices service provider and Instructor for ROE#17, a Respite Camp Supervising Counselor for The Baby Fold, and a Contracted Restorative Practices Training for the International Institute for Restorative Practices. During a more than 30 year professional career in social service, mental health and education, Kevin has gained a tremendous amount of practical knowledge and experience working with “At Risk” youth and their families as practitioner and administrator. Kevin’s professional trainings include training in various behavior management strategies such as Therapeutic Crisis Intervention (TCI), Non-Violent Crisis Intervention (NVC), Trust-Based Relationship Intervention (TBRI) and Restorative Practices (RP). He serves on multiple boards including The United Way-Community Engagement and Illinois Balanced Restorative Justice Project (IBRJ boards).